Tracers

The tracers arc through the night, like fireflies that sting. A hypnotic power entrancing and mesmerizing, as like a dancing messenger of death it races through the night looking for someone to talk to. - Pete "Doc" Frase

Important Events of the Vietnam War

I will be posting all the important events that took place concerning the Vietnam War during each month.

November 22, 1954 - Ho Chi Minh in Time

Time magazine features Ho Chi Minh on its cover along with a lengthy feature profiling the new president of North Vietnam. "Ho Chi Minh, dedicated Communist," the article reads, "is a matchless interplay of ruthlessness and guile."

November, 1955 - U.S. supports Diem

Ngo Dinh Diem, with the help of the United States, consolidates power in Saigon and rejects the Geneva Accords. Fearing (correctly) that he will lose against Ho Chi Minh, Diem refuses to hold countrywide elections. Still, the United States remains committed to his regime.

November 8, 1960 - Kennedy Elected

Democrat John F. Kennedy defeats Republican candidate Richard M. Nixon to become the 35th president of the United States.

November 11, 1960 - South Army coup fails

President Ngo Dinh Diem defeats an attempted coup by his own South Vietnamese government forces, the Army of the Republic of Vietnam (ARVN).

November 1, 1963 - Diem overthrown

With U.S. encouragement, South Vietnamese General Duong Van Minh overthrows the Diem regime, and the following day he orders the execution of Diem and his brother. General Duong's military rule is recognized by the United States.

November 3, 1964 - Johnson wins landslide

Lyndon B. Johnson wins the presidential election in a tremendous landslide.

Important Events of the Vietnam War Contd.

November 30, 1967 - McNamara released

President Johnson "releases" Robert McNamara from his duties as Secretary of Defense. Johnson offers McNamara, who has grown increasingly pessimistic about U.S. progress against the North Vietnamese, a position as head of the World Bank.

November 6, 1968 - Nixon elected

Republican Richard Nixon is elected president of the United States.

November 15, 1969 - D.C. Anti-war protest

Some 600,000 Americans attend an anti-war protest rally in Washington, D.C.

November 16, 1969 - Nixon promises withdrawal

President Nixon promises to withdraw 35,000 additional troops from the war in Vietnam.

November 24, 1969 - Calley charged

The U.S. Army announced that Lt. William L. Calley had been charged with premeditated murder in the massacre of civilians in the Vietnamese village of My Lai in March of 1968. Calley was ordered to stand trial by court martial and was later convicted and sentenced to life in prison. However, his sentence was later commuted to three years of house arrest by President Richard Nixon.

Important Events of the Vietnam War Contd.

November 7, 1972 - Nixon relected

Nixon defeats Democratic candidate Senator George McGovern in the presidential election. McGovern has run on an anti-war platform that would grant amnesty to draft evaders who have left the country, and would exchange American withdrawal from Vietnam for the return of American prisoners of war (POWs).

November 11, 1972 - End of war

The U.S. turned over its military base at Long Binh to the South Vietnamese, symbolizing the end of direct American military participation in the Vietnam War.

Another Good Morning From Vietnam!

Looks like another beautiful day
Here in sunny Vietnam to play
Your favorite tunes brought to you
By way of AFVN and the DJ crew

From dawn to dusk every day
AFVN over the air comes your way
Spinning your Top 40 with the news
Some rock, country, jazz, and blues

Whether you're behind a machine
Or buried in paperwork to get done
Groove to some music on the AFVN dial
It's 1969 and you've not heard these in a while

The weather's not going to change
real soon
Charlie's been scarce during the monsoons
Relax and turn up the volume for the next hour
Some blasts from the past for the guys in the tower

It's been raining rockets all week in Lai Khe
So here's requests for all of you up that way
'I Wish It Would Rain' and 'Good Vibrations'
Time to sign off now from all AFVN stations

American Veterans Disabled for Life Memorial

In Washington on Sunday, October 3rd amid the myriad of monuments immortalizing the country’s past near the U.S. Capitol, President Barack Obama paid tribute to the nation’s wounded servicemen and servicewomen at the unveiling of a memorial of a different kind.

Sixteen years in the making, The American Veterans Disabled for Life Memorial (AVDLM) is not only a tribute to fallen soldiers and wounded warriors, but also to their loved ones and caregivers.

“With this memorial we commemorate, for the first time, the two battles our disabled veterans have fought, the battle over there and the battle here at home,” Obama said.

The Memorial opened to the public on Monday, October 6th.

Veterans to get raise

Millions of veterans and their dependents will get a fresh cost-of-living increase for their disability benefits beginning in December, according to legislation that Congress sent President Obama on Tuesday, September 23rd.

New Rules May Allow Benefits Long Denied to Vietnam-Era Veterans

Thousands of Vietnam-era veterans barred from receiving benefits because of less-than-honorable discharges may be eligible for upgrades under a new set of guidelines released by the Defense Department on Wednesday, September 3rd.

The guidelines call on the independent boards that review petitions from veterans seeking upgrades to give “liberal consideration” to any symptoms of PTSD now or at the time of the veterans’ discharge, and “special consideration” to findings of PTSD by the Veterans Affairs Department.

The announcement comes in the wake of a class-action lawsuit filed in federal court by a group of Vietnam veterans and the advocacy group Vietnam Veterans of America, alleging that the military systematically denied applications for upgrades involving PTSD.
